Beach Day! This Sunday

Hueston Sailing's first Beach Day arrives this Sunday, July 29 with food, racing, and games as HSA takes a little break from the regular racing schedule. Organizers say there will be two short (and unusual) races beginning at 1:30, followed by a sail in to the north end of the beach for a grill out, swimming, and beach games at approximately 2:30 – 3:00.

A mooring line will be put out for those who want to tie up their boats if preferred. A grill and a canopy will be nearby. Those in attendance should bring lawn chairs and a side dish. Lemonade, hamburgers, hot dogs, buns, snacks and condiments will be provided, as will paper plates and cups.

The racing details have been kept secret but expect a leveled playing field where young and old, experienced and novice will be battling it out for the title of Beach Day Champs.

All members, family, and friends are invited as well as camp and Learn to Sail alumni. RSVP midview@wildblue.net so we know food #'s!

Mystery Picture of the Week

Do you recognize what is in this picture? If so, write in and tell us what you think it is and you could be a big winner! (hint: It was taken at the lake and it is one of our members in the photo showing off something.)

Brunch Day Brings Out Foodies, But Juniors Take Over Racing

There were egg casseroles, fruit salads, and muffins galore, but the day's highlight was the seven juniors who showed up for racing last Sunday. Daniel and Samantha Marks and a friend from Indy came as did junior camp holdovers Sean Mahoney, Harrison Free, and Zane Koontz.

But also in attendance were regular junior racers Kevin DeArmon, fresh off his first place "A" Fleet championship in junior camp, and Brendan Draper, veteran racer and man about the lake.

Kevin won race one but Sean took race two. The top three finishers, Kevin, Sean, and Brendan, ended up in three way tie.

The tiebreaker went to Sean who finished first in race two. Sean now heads back to Seattle with a few sailing scalps in his belt.

The juniors were apparently boisterous and prompted one curmudgeon to say, "Can we invoke the quiet zone on the Sunfish?" (No names will be mentioned.) (Roger.) (Oops.)

This prompted Y crew Bobbie Bode to say, "No way, they're the only wind we have!"

The wind was, once again, not a help, up and down all day in hot temps. In the Y Fleet, Charlie DeArmon and crew Cam Mauzy administered the first whooping that Roger Henthorn has had in a year, taking race one by a nose. Hobies did not sail.

Jim Mossman smiling after breaking both wrists. (Wife says it was the morphine smiling. Jim was actually bummed out.) We don't know all the details yet, but it involved a rogue Segway.
