Commodore's Corner – Caring, Competition, and Fun

What a year! Last November, when elected as HSA's 32nd person to hold the position of Commodore, I felt the pressure of its history to make good decisions and lead the club safely through the season just like those before me. Looking back through the newsletters and FB posts this year, the culture of fun, caring, and keen competition successfully continued on toward our seventh decade without missing a beat. Whew!

And sometimes history gently taps you on the shoulder to remind you of your task to “keep the boat moving” as sailing mentors often say. In my case, the gentle tap was from the daughter of our 1969 Commodore, David Morton, who stopped by the lake on her way to Pennsylvania from Texas “because she had wonderful memories of our club and wanted to see if it were still here.” Well, we fed her and her husband some pie, reminisced a bit, and sent her on to PA with a club Directory with her father's name noted right on page 1 – Past Commodores. They left happy knowing we were not only still in existence but also still having fun—something very important and the sole reason I wear that impressive but silly Commodore's hat. HSA loves its competition but also has a long history of fun, and caring for others, that rest assured I'll keep nurturing!

Caring, Competition, and Fun all captured in a single image on beautiful Acton Lake.

As we close out the 2025 sailing season , with our boats safely tucked away for a long winter's nap, sailors in their nightcaps with visions of mark roundings dancing in their heads...oh wait! That's December!

We want to remind everyone of the upcoming Dave Dellenbaugh racing clinics!

These webinar clinics are a great value at $55.00 per 4 lesson group, they cover, beginning November 24th- Rules at the start, December 1- upwind & downwind, December 8-Mark rounding rules, December 15-Questions & answers.

Racing clinics provided by Mike Stratton at Hueston Woods Lodge will also be available this winter! Keep your eyes on the tale tails so you are ready for that adventure as well!
